

PHCA students now have school provided Gagggle email accounts. According to school board policy, any email communication between students and teachers should be through the school provided Gagggle accounts. To access these accounts, parents & students must sign the Parent Waiver and return it to the student's homeroom teacher.

<https://www.gagggle.net/>